Populate a linked list with the user-inputted (UI) letters Populate a linked list with all the dictionary words that can be made from the UI letters Create an array for storing each word in a "word string" which will be created using only the UI letters Starting with the first word in the list of dictionary words, assign a word the be the first word in the "word string" array Replace the Can the current word in the current word with array be made from the next word in 'unused' UI letters? the list Store the current word in the "word Have all the letters in the UI string" array; letters list been used by words in the "word string" Move to next element in the array Print or store the whole "word string"

Replace the current word with the next word from the dictionary words list

Start